

Harm Reduction Program Sample Report January to March 2020

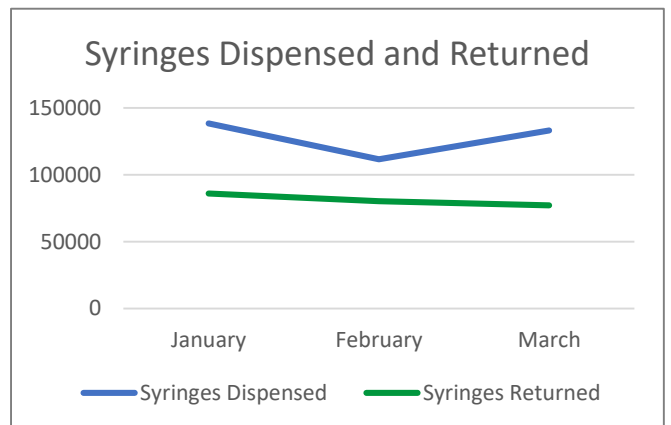

Harm reduction is a comprehensive set of public health strategies that aim to reduce sickness and death among people who inject drugs.

Educational materials were distributed to participants at 2,504 visits in March

64% of syringes dispensed between January and March were returned

308 participants were referred to treatment between January and March 2020.