

Harm Reduction Program Sample Report

April to June 2020

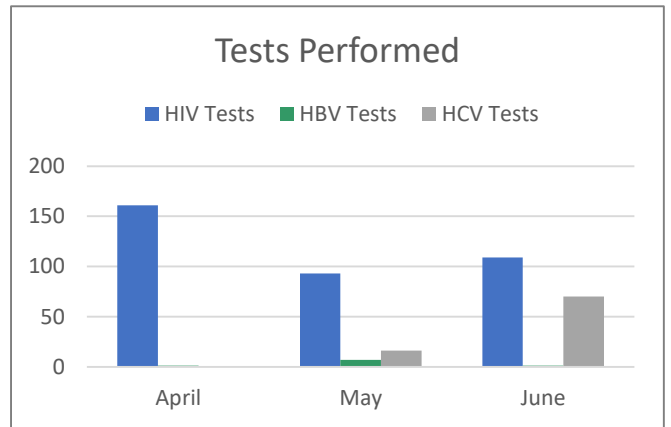

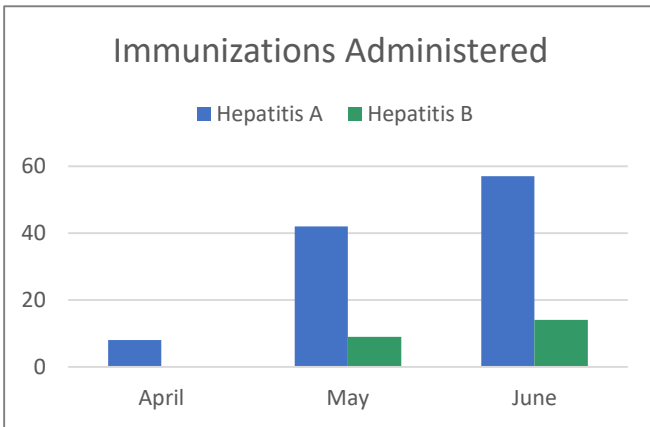

Harm reduction is a comprehensive set of public health strategies that aim to reduce sickness and death among people who inject drugs.

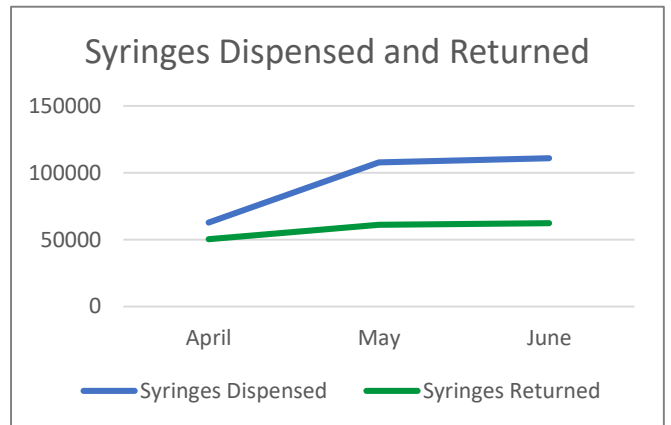

Educational materials were distributed to participants at

1,214 visits

in June

62% of syringes dispensed between April and June were returned

69 participants were referred to treatment between April and June 2020.