

Harm Reduction Program Report July to September 2020

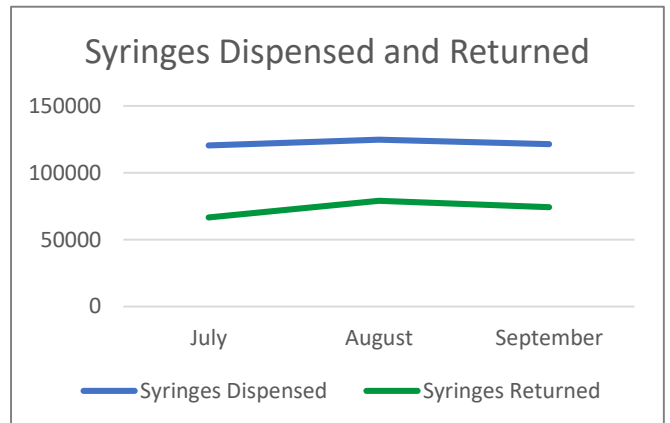

Harm reduction is a comprehensive set of public health strategies that aim to reduce sickness and death among people who inject drugs.

Educational materials were distributed to participants at 4,492 visits in Quarter 3 of 2020

60% of syringes dispensed between July and September were returned

133 participants were referred to treatment between July and September 2020.