

4DX SNAP Test Reporting Form (2023) For Veterinarians

Important: Reporting positive 4DX SNAP test is completely voluntary. Thank you for this important information.

Please complete the following information for dogs that were positive by 4DX SNAP test and mail to the Zoonotic Disease Program in one of the postage-paid envelopes provided.

Name of veterinary practice	Name of veterinarian	Vet office phone number
Date of test	Name of animal with tick	Age	Sex
Home county of dog	Home zip code of dog	County where tick was found on animal
Was this the first documented 4DX SNAP test for this dog at your practice?		<input type="checkbox"/> Yes	<input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/> Don't know
4DX SNAP test result(s): <input type="checkbox"/> A. phagocytophilum/platys <input type="checkbox"/> B. burgdorferi <input type="checkbox"/> E. canis/ewingii <input type="checkbox"/> Canine heartworm
If no, what was the date of the last previous positive 4DX SNAP test?		_____/_____/_____
4DX SNAP test result(s): <input type="checkbox"/> A. phagocytophilum/platys <input type="checkbox"/> B. burgdorferi <input type="checkbox"/> E. canis/ewingii <input type="checkbox"/> Canine heartworm
Is this animal on tick prevention?	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes	<input type="checkbox"/> No	<input type="checkbox"/> Don't know
If no, was tick prevention discussed?	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes	<input type="checkbox"/> No	<input type="checkbox"/> Don't know
If yes, specify: _____
Comments: _____
_____
_____

For more information about tickborne disease surveillance in West Virginia, please contact the Zoonotic Disease Program in the Division of Infectious Disease Epidemiology at (304)-558-5358 ext. 1. Additional information about ticks and tickborne disease can be found at <https://www.cdc.gov/ticks/index.html>. Please visit our website at <https://oepls.wv.gov/arboviral/Pages/tbd.aspx>.

CUT HERE

4DX SNAP Test Reporting Form (2023) For Veterinarians

Important: Reporting positive 4DX SNAP test is completely voluntary. Thank you for this important information.

Please complete the following information for dogs that were positive by 4DX SNAP test and mail to the Zoonotic Disease Program in one of the postage-paid envelopes provided.

Name of veterinary practice	Name of veterinarian	Vet office phone number
Date of test	Name of animal with tick	Age	Sex
Home county of dog	Home zip code of dog	County where tick was found on animal
Was this the first documented 4DX SNAP test for this dog at your practice?		<input type="checkbox"/> Yes	<input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/> Don't know
4DX SNAP test result(s): <input type="checkbox"/> A. phagocytophilum/platys <input type="checkbox"/> B. burgdorferi <input type="checkbox"/> E. canis/ewingii <input type="checkbox"/> Canine heartworm
If no, what was the date of the last previous positive 4DX SNAP test?		_____/_____/_____
4DX SNAP test result(s): <input type="checkbox"/> A. phagocytophilum/platys <input type="checkbox"/> B. burgdorferi <input type="checkbox"/> E. canis/ewingii <input type="checkbox"/> Canine heartworm
Is this animal on tick prevention?	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes	<input type="checkbox"/> No	<input type="checkbox"/> Don't know
If no, was tick prevention discussed?	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes	<input type="checkbox"/> No	<input type="checkbox"/> Don't know
If yes, specify: _____
Comments: _____
_____
_____

For more information about tickborne disease surveillance in West Virginia, please contact the Zoonotic Disease Program in the Division of Infectious Disease Epidemiology at (304)-558-5358 ext. 1. Additional information about ticks and tickborne disease can be found at <https://www.cdc.gov/ticks/index.html>. Please visit our website at <https://oepls.wv.gov/arboviral/Pages/tbd.aspx>.